DEPOSITORS WANT A FULL STATEMENT OF WILDE'S ACTIONS

Ask Order of Court for Report of Receiver of the State Bank and Trust Company.

CARSON, Jan. 31.—The following petition was filed in the district court yesterday by Attorneys Roberts and Sanford, acting for a large number of depositors of the State Bank and Trust company whose deposits aggregate over $100,000. It will be seen by the petition that a full accounting of the funds of the bank and a complete story of all actions taken since the last report was filed was asked for:

To the honorable Frank P. Laugan, district judge of the first judicial district, state of Nevada, in and for the county of Ormsby:

Your petitioners, depositors and creditors of the State Bank and Trust company, a corporation, and parties in interest in the above entitled action, and as such parties in interest, respectfully petition this honorable court for an order directing the receiver of said State Bank and Trust company, a corporation, to prepare and file a complete, full and specific report of the conditions and affairs of said institution, and as a basis for such order of court, respectfully aver, allege and show to this honorable court as follows, to-wit:

I. That said State Bank and Trust company, a corporation, being insolvent and unable to continue its regular banking business voluntarily closed its doors on the 23rd day of October, A. D. 1907, and surrendered its assets to the bank examiner through the board of bank commissioners of the state of Nevada, whose duty it was to preserve and keep the same, and suffer no waste or loss thereof either to the creditors, or to said State Bank and Trust company, a corporation.

II. That this honorable court appointed Frank L. Wildes as receiver of the State Bank and Trust company, a corporation, defendant in the above entitled action on the 18th day of May, 1908, and said Frank L. Wildes furnished the necessary bond, qualified and entered upon the discharge of his duties as such receiver, and has ever since been and now is the duly appointed, qualified and acting receiver of said State Bank and Trust company aforesaid.

III. That your petitioners are informed and believe and upon such information and belief so allege the fact to be that between the said 23rd day of October, A. D. 1907, and the said 18th day of May A. D.

1908, and while said State Bank and Trust company, was insolvent, as aforesaid, said board of bank commissioners of the state of Nevada, wrongfully permitted divers and sundry persons to have and receive access to the books and accounts of said insolvent institution, and wrongfully and illegally to "trade" and "switch" accounts and give preferences, and thus deplete the assets of said institution to the loss and detriment of your petitioners and other creditors.

IV. That more than two (2) years have passed since the said State Bank and Trust company closed its doors as an insolvent and defunct institution, and nearly two years have passed since Frank L. Wildes was appointed receiver of said institution, and no full, complete and specific report or any report whatsoever of the true condition of said State Bank and Trust company under said receivership has ever been filed in this court or given your petitioners or the other creditors of said institution, except a first partial and incomplete report.

V. That your petitioners are further informed and believe and upon such information and belief so allege the fact to be, that all "trading" and "switching" of accounts subsequent to the 23rd day of October, A. D. 1907, was and is illegal and contrary to the basic principles of law and equity, and that all of said accounts so "traded" or "switched" and all preference given after the said 23rd day of October, A. D. 1907, should be collected by your receiver and become the property of the creditors of said State Bank and Trust company, a corporation; that said receiver has not collected nor attempted to collect by suit or otherwise the accounts so "traded" or "switched" or preferences and thus far the same are wholly to the creditors of said institution.

VI. That since said 18th day of May, A. D. 1908, various assets of said insolvent institution have been disposed of and converted into cash, and various suits have been instituted for and on behalf of said creditors; that various amounts have been expended for help in keeping the accounts of said institution, in traveling and other incidental expenses, and various charges are now being incurred against the estate of said

State Bank and Trust company as aforesaid, and various legal services are being rendered your said receiver by various attorneys, the cost of which services are wholly unknown to your petitioners, and the names and character of the various suits brought by your receiver through his attorneys in this and other states are wholly unknown to your petitioners.

VII. That your petitioners and the other creditors of said State Bank and Trust company, as aforesaid, have during the said receivership of Frank L. Wildes received only ten (10) per centum of their deposits and that the remaining ninety (90) per centum of their said deposits are still due and owing and unpaid to them.

Wherefore your petitioners pray this honorable court to make an order directing the receiver of said State Bank and Trust company, a corporation, to prepare and file forthwith a full, true and specific report in this court as follows, to-wit:

a. A full, true and complete report of all stocks, bonds and other securities coming into his hands as receiver, the names of the stocks, bonds and securities and character thereof.

b. A full, true and complete report of all stocks, bonds and other securities disposed of by the receiver and the names of said stocks, bonds and securities so sold, the names of the purchasers and the dates of sale and the amounts received from such sales.

c. A full, true and complete report of all moneys paid out to the various employees, the time employed, and the amounts paid to each.

d. A full, true and specific report of all fees paid out to attorneys, other than Mack & Green, as attorneys' fees, for traveling expenses, court costs, incidentals and any agreement made with them with reference to services rendered or to be rendered, contingent or otherwise.

e. A full, true and complete and specific report of all fees paid out to Mack & Green, as attorneys' fees, for traveling expenses, court costs and incidentals, and any agreement made with them in reference to services rendered or to be rendered, contingent or otherwise.

ence to services rendered or to be rendered, contingent or otherwise.

f. A full, true and specific report of all suits brought by said receiver in Nevada and elsewhere, the court in which each is brought, the parties to the action, and the amounts involved and the status of each case.

g. A full, true and specific statement of all suits in which judgments were obtained, either for or against the receiver and the amounts recovered or lost thereby and the names of the attorneys representing the various interests involved.

h. A full, true and specific statement of all moneys drawn as receiver of said State Bank and Trust company, for salary, fees, traveling expenses, incidentals, etc., not heretofore specifically called for.

i. A full, true and specific statement of all sums of moneys unpaid depositors from the two dividends of 5 per centum each, declared by your receiver, and the names of the depositors and creditors who have not received the same.

And your petitioners further pray that a day be fixed by this honorable court for the filing of said report as herein prayed, and that day be set for the hearing thereon and that the said receiver and attorneys, Mack & Green, be cited to appear and answer such questions concerning the same as may be deemed meet and proper to the ends that your petitioners' interests may be fully protected.

And your petitioners further pray that this honorable court direct the receiver to take such legal steps as may be necessary to recover all the accounts, due and owing the said State Bank and Trust company, on the 23rd day of October, A. D. 1907, regardless of "trades," "switches," or other preferences made after that date.

And your petitioners will ever pray. Dated Jan. 29, 1910, Roberts & Sanford, attorneys for petitioners.
